“ THE INTELLIGENT TREASURY:

Evolving from reactive to proactive foresight Through AI, Automation and Predictive Decision-Making.

Focus of the theme:

The theme focuses on the transformation of corporate treasury from a reactive operational function into an intelligent, predictive and strategic decision-making hub powered by Artificial Intelligence, automation, advanced data analytics and digital finance technologies. Traditionally, treasury teams have been reactive — responding to liquidity needs, FX volatility, interest rate changes, funding requirements, and financial risks after events occur.

The Intelligent Treasury:

Automation and Predictive
Decision-Making.

However, the modern treasury function is evolving into an “Intelligent Treasury” that:

Uses AI and data analytics to predict financial risks and opportunities

Automates routine processes such as payments, reconciliation and reporting

Integrates treasury with ERP, banking platforms and fintech systems

Uses real-time data to guide corporate strategy

Provides forward-looking insights for CFOs and boards

The theme therefore emphasizes the shift from firefighting to foresight, where treasury leaders leverage technology to anticipate market movements, optimize liquidity, manage risk proactively and support enterprise-wide strategic decision making.

For Nigeria and emerging markets, this transformation is particularly important due to:

FX volatility

Inflation and interest rate uncertainty

liquidity constraints

regulatory changes

increasing digital finance adoption

Treasury must therefore become data-driven, technology-enabled and predictive.

Everything depends on how you connect.
